

ORAL HISTORIES IN THE HSM COLLECTION

1. Gertrude Williams Lifelong resident and teacher at No . 7 school
2. Miller Wolf Grocer in Moorestown from 1921
3. Eleanor H. Crowley Moorestown Native
4. Henry W. Petty A Moorestown architect
5. Edwin R. Sumner Memories of Moorestown
6. Lester Hess Teaching in Moorestown 1924 – 1953
7. William C. Coles, Jr The Moorestown Business Community - early 1900s

8. Walter Gardiner Banking in Moorestown
9. Anna May Sharp Growing up in Moorestown
10. Lindley Gardiner Farming and the Moorestown Grange
11. Ruth Conrow Williams A Family and personal history
12. James M. Stokes Boyhood in Moorestown
13. Marguerite S. Cooper Growing up in Moorestown
14. Helen Wallace Early memories of Moorestown
15. William James Hall A Moorestown Twp. committee member
16. Elizabeth Lippincott Growing up near Moorestown
17. Elizabeth R. Lippincott The history of the Pilgrims and other social societies

18. Dr. Elizabeth Ford Love A Moorestown doctor and native
19. Sara and C. W. Haines Haines family background and life experiences
20. Beatrice M. Thomas A Tradition of Excellence – “Bea the Best”
21. Warren Maines Thoughts and Memories
22. Elizabeth Volckening Her term as president of the Historical Society
23. Edward & May Borton The Moorestown Years
24. Philip Williams Growing up in Moorestown, s/o Gertrude Williams
25. Annamay Brooks African-American Experience in Moorestown
26. Alice Chinn African-American Experience in Moorestown
27. Kathryn Hall African-American Experience in Moorestown
28. Mary Cordelia Bounds African-American Experience in Moorestown
29. Ophelia Harris African-American Experience in Moorestown
30. Alemeda Brooks African-American Experience in Moorestown
31. A. Engle Conrow Farmer in Moorestown
32. Martin L. Haines Burlington Co. attorney and judge
33. Francis J. Hartman Burlington Co. attorney
34. Jim Laessle Trains and growing up in Moorestown
35. Neil Hartman Teacher at Friends School
36. Harold H. Wells, III Burlington County Judge
37. Lous A. Smith, Esquire Burlington County Attorney
38. Martin L. Haines Selected Works and Opinions of (2 volumes)
39. William Reeve Archer Memories of Moorestown